NEWS FROM THE DIVISION

STATE BOARD SEEKS COMMENT ON PROPOSED REGULATIONS ABOUT FEES AT THE STATE LIBRARIES, ARCHIVES AND MUSEUMS, AND STANDARDS FOR MICROFORM OF STATE RECORDS

The Department of Education & Early Development proposes to adopt regulation changes dealing with fees for services of the Division of Libraries, Archives & Museums and requirements for microform of state records, including the following: increase fees for services at the Division of Libraries, Archives & Museums; set minimum requirements for microforms of state records; and increase fees for admission and/or annual passes at the Alaska State Museum and Sheldon Jackson Museum. See <https://education.alaska.gov/regs/comment.cfm>. Written comments must be received no later than 4:30 p.m. on April 30.

A copy of the microform standards proposed for adoption by reference is available for inspection at the Department of Education & Early Development, 801 W. 10th Street, Juneau. Contact Eric Fry at eric.fry@alaska.gov or 907-465-2851 to arrange to see the document.

You may submit written questions relevant to these proposed actions to Eric Fry at eric.fry@alaska.gov or Department of Education & Early Development, Attn: Eric Fry, 801 West Tenth Street, Suite 200, PO Box 110500, Juneau, Alaska 99811-0500. The questions must be received by 4:30 p.m. April 30. The department will aggregate its response to substantially similar questions and make the questions (without the person's name) and responses available on <https://education.alaska.gov/regs/comment.cfm>.

RECORDING AVAILABLE: FREE ONLINE SURVEY TOOLS

This week Daniel Cornwall covered a few options for conducting online surveys at no cost to your institution in the following archived webinar:

FRIENDS OF HOMER PUBLIC LIBRARY CELEBRATE LIFELONG LEARNING

A 4/8/2015 article on the Homer News website by Aryn Young and titled Lifelong Learning Event celebrates Homer also celebrated libraries. From the article:

How a community nurtures learning, and how libraries inspire that, kept coming up in speeches last Saturday for the Friends of the Homer Public Library's Celebration of Lifelong Learning. Speakers mentioned the library as one of the prime places to build community togetherness and enjoyment.

LOOKING FOR SLIDES AND HANDOUTS FROM AKLA 2015?

If you are looking for slides and handouts posted to the 2015 Alaska Library Association (AkLA) conference, visit the Program page at <http://akla.org/juneau2015/program-2/> . Every session that has online material has been marked with a double asterisk “”. The AkLA web team hopes this will make it easier to find the content you desire.
